The History of RGV

David Burke, Garry Burke (retired) & Mark Chalke. RGV continues to be a "family" business employing and training

WOW 50 years! RGV Engineering Ltd was established in 1967 by the present Managing Director David Burke's father Garry, along with colleagues Ron and Vic, hence the RGV name.

Garry retired 20 years ago, it was at this time that Mark Chalke joined RGV as a fellow shareholder and Director to work alongside David in running and managing the Company.

RGV started in 1967 as local plumbers and electricians, it continues to serve its local domestic customers carrying out works such as new bathroom suites, boilers, general plumbing repairs & minor electrical jobs.

But RGV also has currently an order book in excess of £1 million, working on various large prestige Celebrity homes from Richmond London down to the West Country along with various large school project.

Nathan Chalke with his Father Mark Chalke

would like to congratulate RGV on 50 years of trading and continued success for the future.
